

Term 3, Edition 6

September 2017

Review to Achieve Educational Excellence in Australian Schools

Submissions close 13 October 2017

The Panel for the Review to Achieve Educational Excellence in Australian Schools is calling for submissions on how school funding should be used to improve school performance and student outcomes. For more information, click Here

'NSW P&C Volunteer of the Year'

Nominations close 11 October 2017

P&C Federation invites all affiliate P&C Associations across NSW to nominate that deserving volunteer for the prestigious 'NSW P&C Volunteer of the Year' title. For more information, please click Here

2018 Conference Proud Community Partner

Share Learn Network: P&C Federation 2018 Conference

Registrations close 15 October 2017

The P&C Federation Conference is being held on the 2 & 3 March 2018, for its members across New South Wales to attend regardless of their location whether it be in metro, regional or rural areas. For more information, go to P&C Federation 2018 Conference

Premier's Volunteer Recognition Program

Nominations close on 30 September 2017

The program is a meaningful way to celebrate the valuable contribution of the many volunteers who make a difference in your organisation and the community.

Nominating is easy using the online form.

NSW Youth Advisory Council (YAC) 2018

Nominations close 31 September 2017

The NSW Government is seeking applications for members of the 2018 NSW Youth Advisory Council.

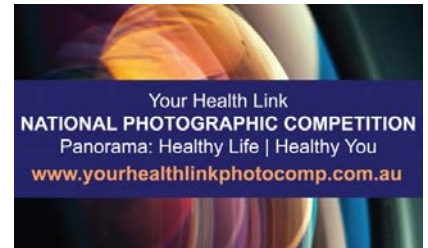

For more information on the NSW Youth Advisory Council, click Here

National Photographic Competition

Competition closes 8 October 2017

The Mid North Coast Local Health District MNCLHD (NSW Health) has launched the second Your Health Link National Photographic Competition, with the theme 'Healthy Life | Healthy You'. The competition is designed to increase health literacy and is open to all Australian primary and high school students. For more information, click Here

Design Competition for NSW Children's Week

Competition closes on 13 October 2017

The Advocate for Children and Young People (ACYP) has launched a design competition. Everyone up to the age of 18 is invited to draw, paint or digitally create a design. For more information, click Here

Public Education Foundation Student Scholarships

Applications for secondary school students close October 17, 2017

Applications for primary school students close October 24, 2017

Scholarship areas:

- Scholarships for students from refugee backgrounds.
- Scholarships for students with a physical disability
- Scholarships for students with an interest in social justice
- Trades & technology scholarships for students transitioning to tertiary studies
- Primary school and secondary school scholarships for Indigenous students.
- Scholarships for primary school students to support them through their critical years of schooling.

For more information, click Here

2018 Harding Miller Education Foundation Scholarships

Applications close 29 October 2017

Scholarships are open to all Year 8 girls who are Australian citizens studying in a New South Wales public school. For more information, click Here

AVCAT Scholarships for tertiary studies

Nominations close 31 October 2017

The Australian Veterans Children Assistance Trust (AVCAT) scholarships for tertiary studies at a TAFE College, Registered Training Organisation or University are now open. AVCAT is a national independent charity which aims to help the children and grandchildren of ex-service men and women to a better future through tertiary education. For more information about scholarship eligibility, please click Here

Happy Holidays

Well who can believe we are at the end of Term 3 and the school holidays are upon on us. Contact your local council to see if they are hosting school holiday activities, find your council Here

Remember the most important thing these holidays is to stay safe so if you are driving long distances don't forget to Stop, Revive, Survive.