

NSW P&C Volunteer of the Year 2018 Is....

P&C Federation 2019 Conference at the NOVOTEL, Parramatta on 1st and 2nd March 2019. The highlight of the 2 days was the Awards Dinner on Friday evening where the NSW P&C Volunteer of the Year 2018 winner was announced.

The evening was an opportunity to acknowledge hardworking and committed volunteers from across NSW who have been recognised and nominated by their P&C Association for the title NSW P&C Volunteer of the Year for 2018 and selected as a finalist from their electorate by independent judges.

The Awards Dinner was opened by Stewart Vidler, Department of Education, and was followed by an exciting and engaging presentation by Mathematician, Eddie Woo, who then also presented the awards to the finalists.

The moment that everyone had been waiting for was finally here Eddie Woo announced the NSW P&C Volunteer of the Year for 2018 winner, Karen Hodgson from Lucas Heights Community School P&C Association. Karen was presented with her award by Mr Lex Thornton and Veronica Howarth, Commonwealth Bank.

For further news about the conference don't miss the Term 2 P&C Journal

P&C Federation Board and staff would like to thank the P&C Associations who sent through their nominations. We'd also like to thank the judges for having to go through the difficult task of choosing the winner. A big thank you to our sponsors, exhibitors, workshop presenters, community partner and to all the P&C Associations who attended and made the conference such a success.

We are looking forward to next year's conference.
