P&C Federation would like to thank all the P&C Associations that nominated deserving volunteers. The nominations received were inspiring and revealed the huge contribution, that our parent and community army provide in public schools across NSW.

P&C Federation President, Susie Boyd commented, "On behalf of P&C Federation, I take pride in congratulating all the finalists. It was wonderful to see so many nominations and I didn't envy the judges.

P&C Association volunteers work tirelessly to support their school and students, providing vital resources and advocating for our schools. Volunteers are what makes P&C Associations tick and there isn't a better occasion than at the P&C Conference to honour the outstanding commitment and contribution they have made to their school community and students."

Formal letters have been mailed to the finalists to attend the P&C Federation 2018 Conference and Awards dinner along with a companion. The finalist and their companion will receive - entry to the conference on both days, the awards dinner, accommodation and meals.

P&C Federation, would like to congratulate all the finalists. We look forward to seeing you at the P&C Federation 2018 Conference.
